

Travel

#PHR

- Travel to

This preposition indicates the destination of a journey or trip.

- I will travel to Europe next summer.

- Travel from

This preposition indicates the starting point of a journey or trip.

— John will travel from New York to Miami for his vacation.

- Travel with

This preposition indicates the companions or belongings of a person during the journey or trip.

— Mary will travel with her sister to Mexico.

- Travel by:

This preposition indicates the mode of transportation used for the journey or trip.

— We will travel by plane to visit our grandparents.

- Travel through:

This preposition indicates the route or path taken during the journey or trip.

— The couple will travel through the mountains to reach their campsite.

- Travel across:

This preposition indicates movement from one side to another of a region or country.

— He plans to travel across the US from coast to coast.

- Travel around:

This preposition indicates movement in a circular or random direction while exploring a place.

— The tourists will travel around Paris for a week.