

Travel

1. Travel to: This preposition indicates the destination of a journey or trip. Example: I will travel to Europe next summer.
2. Travel from: This preposition indicates the starting point of a journey or trip. Example: John will travel from New York to Miami for his vacation.
3. Travel with: This preposition indicates the companions or belongings of a person during the journey or trip. Example: Mary will travel with her sister to Mexico.
4. Travel by: This preposition indicates the mode of transportation used for the journey or trip. Example: We will travel by plane to visit our grandparents.
5. Travel through: This preposition indicates the route or path taken during the journey or trip. Example: The couple will travel through the mountains to reach their campsite.
6. Travel across: This preposition indicates movement from one side to another of a region or country. Example: He plans to travel across the US from coast to coast.
7. Travel around: This preposition indicates movement in a circular or random direction while exploring a place. Example: The tourists will travel around Paris for a week.