

Talk Your Way Out

#PHR

- “ A woman builds her house with her hands and destroys it with her mouth ”
 - You can talk your way out of the relationship
 - the demand for explanation goes from top down and never the other way around
 - Stop pursuing her ,let that plate fall
 - your emotional response may be disproportional to the situation
 - Are we keeping scores ?
 - the relationship is on its last leg
 - to extrapolate
- We can't extrapolate the result of our studies to other patient groups .
- to turn a somersault
- When I was a kid I was able to turn a somersault to entertain my friends .
- a power outage

— There is a power outage in our neighborhood

- The trees blew down / over

- The trees were blown over / down yesterday

- the tree knocked down the power lines

- paraphernalia

— I bought a big work bench and other wood carving paraphernalia

- virtue signaling

— Changing your profile picture for the latest cause is virtue signaling .

- to span across

— the bridge spans across the river

- to transpire

— as it transpires he was right .

- brace yourself

— Being dressed like that you are in for a lot of catcalling so brace yourself .

- a general-purpose choice

— These scissors are a general-purpose choice , you can cut many things with them .

- I don't get sleep

- A traffic barrel

— The road service used traffic barrels to block the road .

- discrepancy

— There is a discrepancy between your version of the event and his version of the same event .

- line (for something)

- to stay in line
- to be in line (are you in line ? - no, go ahead)
- to wait in line

- to have an accident (usually about kids or pets making a mess)

— your dog had an accident on my carpet .