

Attachment.png

1. recommend + gerund
 1. I recommend practicing English daily
2. recommend + (that)+ subj + verb (toless)
 1. They recommend that I practice daily
 2. Her trainer recommends she eats healthier
 3. (same in the past tense) My doctor recommended I go hiking every week .
 4. (be form of the verb be) The teachers recommended we be on time tomorrow.
3. (negative) recommend + not + verb
 1. Her friend recommends she not sleep too late.
 2. The boss recommends that we not be late on the first day.
4. (wrong wrong! XXX)
 1. She recommends XXX me XXX to XXX come tomorrow **!
 2. You recommend I XXX have to / should XXX (no havetos and shoulds !!!)

Attachment_1.png

1. to take ones temperature (sick person)
 1. I think you are having a fever let me take your temperature.
 2. Have you taken your temperature in the morning?
2. to measure temperature (of things)
 1. I really wish I could measure the temperature of the air outside.
 2. The sensor isn't measuring the temperature anymore.

Attachment_2.png

IMG_1274.jpeg

9k=.jpeg

Caulk
Caulking gun to caulk around