

51 . Social issues

Facing and solving social problems

1. How can we best address the issues ?
2. This book offers a novel solution
3. Almost any social issue can be seen as a force for good
4. The cycle of dependency must be broken
5. Rich nations should provide relief when a disaster strikes poorer countries
6. The company made a plea for the government to assess their situation
7. Haley's new book calls for a fresh drive to address the issue
8. When law and order brake down , riots erupt
9. Public disorder threatens the social fabric *
10. Politicians tend to take draconian measures when it gets hot
11. There is a lot of broken households having to stay in run-down areas

Housing

1. Some houses in the neighborhood are unfit for human habitation
2. Many people are living with poor sanitary conditions *
3. Some areas are safer than others that don't have a good neighborhood watch scheme in place
4. How many states provide housing or at least a shelter to the homeless ?

* living with (NOT in ) poor conditions