

Antidote

#PHR

- to expedite

- The army had to expedite sending troops to Mars to quell the insurrection before the rebel take over the planet .

- to be sold (also on something)

- Eventually , I was sold on the project.

- to accrue (as interest, vacation time)

- The interest of our investment accrues on a daily basis .

- to bone up (for , on)

- I have to bone up on my Arabic for my trip to Morocco .

- an antidote (to poison)

- Harry was bitten by a crazy owl now he needs an antidote before he goes crazy himself .

- We have to come up with an antidote to extremism and ignorance in our society .

- to dial down (sound, light ,heat)

- Joshua went up to the heater and dialed it down to 20 C as it became uncomfortably hot in the room.

- to make for

- I think camping near the lake will make for a great night out .