

"Time a trip"

#PHR

1 . To time a trip(K&S)

to plan a trip

- If you time your trip wisely you will be able to get to all the places you plan on visiting .

2 . I got an appointment to keep

to keep an appointment

- I'm afraid I can't go with you to the museum tomorrow . I have an appointment to keep .

3 . To leaf through a book

To turn pages of a book quickly without reading or looking at them carefully .

- I leafed through the book and didn't find any illustrations whatsoever .

4 . My robots are coming on well to arrive as from a production line

- We are ready for our space adventure . My robots are coming on well . We already have a thousand of them and there are going to be more .

5 . Love at the first sight

Love AT the first sight

- When I met my wife it was a love at the first sight .

6 . It's beneath them (aliens) to be too petty or insignificant for somebody to go after it .

- I don't think our opponents will play dirty games . They all are honorable men and cheating is beneath them.

7 . To be Chuck Norris tough

very tough

- You have to be Chuck - Norris - tough to pull it off .

8 . To fall / come apart at the seams (informal)

To be in a very bad condition , on the verge of collapsing

- Their marriage was beginning to come apart at the seams .
- My whole life seems beginning to be falling apart at the seams .

9 . To push ideological narrative

To promote a narrative that encourages people

- They just keep pushing ideological narrative until the war looks less horrible and is easily justifiable .

10 . To smile ear to ear

To have a broad smile

- She came into the room smiling ear to ear .
- My kids got their new toys and now they are running around smiling ear to ear .