

Boss 'em around

#PHR

1 . To be bossy / to boss smb around

To act like a boss , to seek domination , to tell people what to do .

- Jane is a bossy kid . She always tells the other kids what to do .
- No one will like you if you spend your time bossing people around .

2 . To be pushy

To insist on somebody doing something you want

To push people to do what you need from them

- The sales man is too much active to extent of being pushy .
- I don't want to sound pushy but you really need to do it and get it over with .

3 . To be domineering

When a person in a higher position (such as a boss , manager) is quite aggressive and intense he or she is domineering .

- Every day at work can become a day in hell when you have a domineering boss .
- This guy is a domineering manager . So nobody there likes to work with him .

4 . To be overbearing

When an ordinary person especially a parent is being arrogantly domineering or controlling .

- He can't wait to get away from his overbearing parents .
- Having an overbearing father myself , I don't want to be the same way for my kids .

5 . A manager

A manager is a person who is actively involved in decision making , planning , setting goals of a company or department .

- Jill is a manager of the logistics department . She stands behind every crucial decision made in the department to improve delivery service and customer's experience .

6 . A supervisor

An individual who makes decisions approved the manager .

A supervisor works alongside with employees and is closer to day-to-day tasks than a manager .

A supervisor reports to his manager and receives work outline from managers .

- Marta is our supervisor . We like how objective she is with employee training programs and the way she assigns task so the job can be done in less time.

7 . A shift leader / shift lead / a head of the team

Leading people

A person responsible for a certain group of employees working together (a shift) .

A shift lead makes task are completed in a specific time period that his or her shift covers .

- By far , Joe is the best shift lead that we've had in years .
- Delegating tasks is the shift leader's responsibility .

8 . A shift manager / team lead

Managing work

An individual who takes the responsibility of workflow and task completion carried out by multiple teams during a set time period (a shift) .

- Mario will call Joshua , who is our shift manager to have more information about cars that will be coming in for technical treatment during our night shift .

9 . CEO

Chief Executive Officer

The highest ranking executive of a company responsible for the most important decisions .

- Replacing or moving CEOs around while undergoing a hardship can stabilize or destroy the company .
- She was called up to be a CEO of the main department .

10 . A boss

A boss is an informal word for an individual who oversees employees , manages work environment , sets goals , and destributes assignments.

A manager , supervisor or shift lead can all be equally called bosses because they do similar management job though on a different scale .

- My boss is a nice guy overall . He has his moments though as we all do .