

- 1. Having a hobby: This is a common way of expressing that someone has an activity or pastime they enjoy and invest their free time in. For example, "I have several hobbies, such as photography and hiking."
- 2. Enjoying a hobby: This collocation is used to express the pleasure or satisfaction obtained from engaging in a pastime. For example, "I enjoy my hobby of painting very much."
- 3. Practicing a hobby: This collocation is used to indicate that someone actively engages in a hobby or activity. For example, "I practice my hobby of playing the piano every day."
- 4. Finding a hobby: This collocation is used to express the act of discovering or choosing a new pastime. For example, "I want to find a new hobby that I am passionate about."
- 5. Sharing a hobby: This collocation is used to indicate that someone shares a pastime with another person or group. For example, "I love sharing my gardening hobby with my friends."

Some commonly used verbs with the word "hobby" include:

- 1. Pursue: "She pursues her hobby of painting in her free time."
- 2. Enjoy: "He enjoys his hobby of playing guitar."
- 3. Have: "They have a hobby of collecting stamps."
- 4. Develop: "I am trying to develop a new hobby of gardening."
- 5. Explore: "She likes to explore different hobbies to find what interests her."
- 6. Share: "He loves to share his hobby of photography with others."
- 7. Cultivate: "They cultivate their hobby of cooking by trying new recipes."
- 8. Practice: "He practices his hobby of playing chess every day."
- 9. Engage in: "She frequently engages in her hobby of knitting during the winter months."
- 10. Invest time in: "They invest a lot of time in their hobby of hiking."

These verbs are commonly used to describe various actions related to hobbies, but other verbs can also be used depending on the specific context and activity involved.